Pastor's Letter
Notas del Pastor

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Ascension,

There are many different titles ascribed to Jesus during the Christmas Season, one of which is Prince of Peace. When Jesus was preparing to leave this world, he made a specific promise to his gathered disciples: "Peace I leave you; my peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid." (John 14:27)

In the Scriptures, Jesus speaks of peace on more than 100 occasions. Jesus, during the Final Discourse at the Last Supper, in his high Priestly Prayer, spoke of his great desire that one day, all people throughout the world would be one in the same way that He is one with the Father and with the Spirit. Clearly, Jesus believed that peace and unity could one day be a reality.

Unfortunately, this past year has reminded us of the fact that we seem to be light years away from that reality. On an ongoing basis, we hear news story after news story of random acts of violence, acts of terrorism, and acts of homicidal hatred. We need to pray fervently for the end to violence and for peace in our city and in our nation.

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany. The Epiphany is what we traditionally call the Feast of the Three Kings. Today is the 12th day of Christmas. Symbolically, this is a very important feast because it was through the events of the Epiphany that the divinity of Jesus was revealed for the very first time. This was the first of the three manifestations of Jesus' divinity: Epiphany, The Baptism of Jesus, and the Wedding Feast of Cana (the first public miracle of Jesus.) As people of faith, we recognize the fact that every person is made to the image and likeness of God. Our challenge is to see and find that in every person.

On behalf of Fr. Rafferty, Msgr. Shelley, and Fr. Daniel, we wish you God's choicest blessings for a happy and healthy New Year!

Peace,
Fr. Kearney

Queridos Feligreses y Amigos de la Ascensión,

Hay muchos títulos diferentes atribuidos a Jesús durante la temporada de la Navidad – uno de los cuales es Príncipe de Paz. Cuando Jesús se preparaba para dejar el mundo, él les hizo una promesa especial a sus discípulos reunidos: “La paz les dejo; mi paz les doy. Yo no se la doy a ustedes como la da el mundo. No se angustien ni se acobarden” (Juan 14:27). En las escrituras, Jesús habla sobre la paz en más de cien ocasiones. Jesús, durante su discurso final en la última cena, en su elevada oración sacerdotal, habló de su gran deseo de que algún día, toda la gente a través del mundo fuera una de la misma manera en que él es uno con el padre y con el Espíritu. Claramente, Jesús creía que la paz y la unidad podían un día ser una realidad.

Desafortunadamente, este año pasado nos ha recordado que estamos años de luz lejos de esa realidad. Regularmente escuchamos historia tras historia en las noticias de actos de violencia imprevistos, actos de terrorismo y actos de odio homicida. Necesitamos orar con fervor por el fin a la violencia y por la paz en nuestra ciudad y en nuestra nación.

Hoy celebramos la fiesta de la Epifanía. La Epifanía es lo que tradicionalmente llamamos la fiesta de los tres Reyes Magos. Hoy es 12vo día de Navidad. Simbólicamente, ésta es una fiesta muy importante porque fue a través de los eventos de la Epifanía que la divinidad de Jesús fue revelada por la primera vez. Esta fue la primera de las tres manifestaciones de la divinidad de Jesús: -- la Epifanía, el bautismo de Jesús y la boda de Caná (el primer milagro público de Jesús). Como personas de fe, reconocemos el hecho de que cada persona está hecha a la imagen y semejanza de Dios. Nuestro reto es ver y encontrar eso en cada persona.

¡De parte del Padre Rafferty, Mons. Shelley y el Padre Daniel, les deseamos las mejores bendiciones de Dios para un feliz y saludable año nuevo!

Paz,
Padre Kearney

Here are my hopes, my dreams, my holy shrine;
But other hearts in other lands are beating
With hopes and dreams as true and high as mine. | 2. My country's skies are bluer than the ocean,
And sunlight beams on cloverleaf and pine;
But other lands have sunlight, too, and clover,
And skies are everywhere as blue as mine.
O hear my prayer, thou God of all the nations,
A prayer of peace for their land and for mine. |

Three Kings from Persian lands afar To Jordan follow the pointing star: And this the quest of the travellers three, Where the newborn King of the Jews may be. Full royal gifts they bear for the King; Gold, incense, myrrh are their offering. How brightly shines the morning star! With grace and truth from heaven afar Our Jesse tree now bloweth. The star shines out with a steadfast ray; The kings to Bethlehem make their way, And there in worship they bend the knee, As Mary's child in her lap they see; Their royal gifts they show to the King; Gold, incense, myrrh are their offering. Of Jacob's stem and David's line, For thee, my Bridegroom, King divine, My soul with love o'erfloweth. Thou child of man, lo, to Bethlehem The Kings are travelling, travel with them! The star of mercy, the star of grace, Shall lead thy heart to its resting place. Gold, incense, myrrh thou canst not bring; Offer thy heart to the infant King. Thy word, Jesu, Inly feeds us, Rightly leads us, Life bestowing. Praise, O praise such love o'erflowing.

CONCLUDING RITE

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
