Pastor's Letter
Notas del Pastor

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Ascension,

The highly anticipated visit of Pope Francis to the United States begins this week. The Holy Father will be arriving in Washington DC on Tuesday, then he will be arriving here in NY on Thursday, September 24th. This is the very first time that a pope will address a joint session of Congress. When in the US, it's more than likely that Pope Francis will speak about the importance of protecting the environment and taking urgent action on climate change. It is thought that he will speak about world peace, helping the poor and marginalized, and no doubt he will bring to us an important message about the growing persecution of Christians in the Middle East, and in particular Syria and the plight of the Syrian refugees. Pope Francis has very much been a voice for the voiceless and vulnerable of the world. Pope Francis has been a very effective instrument of raising the level of consciousness of so many throughout the world, particularly as he speaks so eloquently about the poor and those who live in poverty. This should be a most historic visit as will be his message! I also invite you to visit <http://popefrancisnyc.org/>.

I would also like to congratulate Nelson Falcon. Nelson and his family have been faithful parishioners for many years. Nelson has officially been accepted into the Deaconate Program of the Archdiocese of New York. This past year, Nelson was in a year of inquiry. He now officially begins his studies as he prepares to become a deacon. The process is intense, particularly for those who are working and already involved in parish ministry. Nelson will be attending classes at the seminary twice a week for the next four years. Nelson remains actively involved in RCIA, Catechetics, as well as being a lector and a Eucharistic Minister. Deacons will be playing an extremely important role in the life of church here in NY, particularly as the number of priests continues to decrease. Please keep Nelson and his family in your prayers.

Please keep the pope in your prayers and let's pray together that his message will have a lasting impact on the world and our city.

Peace, Fr. Kearney

Queridos Feligreses y Amigos de la Ascensión,

La muy anticipada visita del Papa Francisco a los Estados Unidos comienza esta semana. El Santo Padre llegará a Washington, D.C. el martes, después llegará aquí a Nueva York el jueves, 24 de septiembre. Esta será la primera vez que un papa se dirige a una sesión combinada del congreso. Una vez en los EE.UU. es más que probable que el Papa Francisco hable sobre la importancia de proteger al medio ambiente y tomar medidas urgentes sobre el cambio climático. Se piensa que hablará sobre la paz mundial, ayuda a los pobres y marginados y sin duda nos traerá un mensaje importante acerca de la creciente persecución de los cristianos en el Medio Oriente y en particular en Siria y la grave situación de los refugiados sirios. El Papa Francisco siempre ha sido una voz para los que no tienen voz y los vulnerables. El Papa Francisco ha sido un instrumento muy efectivo para elevar el nivel de conciencia de tantos a través del mundo especialmente cuando habla con tanta elocuencia acerca de los pobres y aquellos que viven en la pobreza. ¡Esta visita será una visita muy histórica al igual que su mensaje! También los invito a que visiten <http://popefrancisnyc.org/>.

También me gustaría felicitar a Nelson Falcón. Nelson y su familia han sido fieles feligreses por muchos años. Nelson ha sido aceptado en el Programa de Diaconado de la Arquidiócesis de Nueva York. Este año pasado Nelson estuvo en un año de interrogación. Él ahora oficialmente comienza sus estudios mientras se prepara para convertirse en diácono. El proceso es intenso – especialmente para aquellos que trabajan y además están comprometidos en ministerios parroquiales. Nelson va a asistir a clases en el seminario – dos veces a la semana por los próximos cuatro años. Nelson continúa activo en RICA, catequesis, al igual que ser un lector y un ministro eucarístico. Los diáconos van a representar un papel extremadamente importante en la vida eclesial aquí en Nueva York – especialmente cuando el número de sacerdotes continúa disminuyendo. Por favor, mantenga a Nelson y a su familia en sus oraciones.

Por favor, mantenga al papa en sus oraciones y oremos juntos que su mensaje tenga un impacto duradero en el mundo y en nuestra ciudad.

Paz, Padre Kearney

Liturgical Ministers

We are holding training sessions soon for parishioners who want to serve as either lectors or Eucharistic Ministers at the English Masses at Ascension.

Lectors read the holy scriptures at Mass and Eucharistic Ministers assist in distributing the Precious Body and Blood at Communion. All Catholics who have received the sacrament of Confirmation can serve in these roles.

For information please contact Andrea Gilbert at 646-943-0916 or andrea Gilbert212@gmail.com.

We can do it TOGETHER!

jUNTO Podemos Hacerlo!

We here at Ascension are very grateful for the exemplary way you willingly share the precious gifts of time, talent, and treasure God has given you.

Today is Catechetical Sunday

The Ascension religious education's catechists and program volunteers will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry. This is a great time for us to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing down the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. May God bless our catechetical volunteers:

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
