Dear Parishioners and Friends of Ascension,

Today in Rome begins The Fourteenth Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops. This Synod continues until October 25, 2015. The theme of the Synod is "the vocation and mission of the family in the Church and in the contemporary world." The Synod should reflect the points discussed at last year's Synod of Bishops so as to formulate appropriate "pastoral guidelines" for the pastoral care of the person and the family. The 2014 Synod was called to define and speak about the current realities of family life in the modern world and then collect the experiences and proposals as a preparation for this year's synod.

Pope Francis described the 2014 Synod by saying that none of the bishops "questioned the fundamental truths of the Sacrament of Matrimony, namely: indissolubility, unity, fidelity and openness to life." This was not touched. He did, however, note that there was a difference between doctrine and discipline. While not mentioning Communion specifically, he said that the Church should "open the doors a bit more" and allow divorced and remarried Catholics to participate in the life of the Church. Remember that a Synod is not a legislative body, nor can it enact anything or make a definitive teaching. Its sole purpose is to make recommendations to Pope Francis.

While in Philadelphia Pope Francis spoke eloquently about family life while recognizing the difficulties and the challenges that are part of any modern day family. I suggest that we all take a moment to pray for the success of this upcoming Synod, and perhaps, take a few moments to meditate on the words of Pope Francis:

"God wants all his children to take part in the feast of the Gospel. Jesus says, "Do not hold back anything that is good, instead help it to grow!" To raise doubts about the working of the Spirit, to give the impression that it cannot take place in those who are not "part of our group", who are not "like us", is a dangerous temptation. Not only does it block conversion to the faith; it is a perversion of faith!"

Pray also that the message and words of Pope Francis will have a profound and lasting impact on all of us.

Peace, Fr. Kearney

Queridos Feligreses y Amigos de la Ascensión,

Hoy comienza en Roma la XIV Asamblea General Ordinaria del Sínodo de los Obispos. Este sínodo continúa hasta el 25 de octubre del 2015. El tema de este sínodo es "la vocación y misión de la familia en la Iglesia y en el mundo contemporáneo." El sínodo debe de reflejar los puntos discutidos en el sínodo de obispos del año pasado para que se puedan formular "guías pastorales" apropiadas para el cuidado pastoral de la persona y de la familia. El sínodo del 2014 fue citado para definir y hablar sobre la actual realidad de la vida familiar en el mundo moderno y después recoger las experiencias y propuestas como preparación para el sínodo de este año.

El Papa Francisco describió el sínodo del 2014 diciendo que ninguno de los obispos "puso en duda las verdades fundamentales del sacramento del matrimonio, es decir, indisolubilidad, unión, fidelidad y apertura a la vida." Esto no se tocó. Él, sin embargo, notó que había una diferencia entre la doctrina y la disciplina. Mientras que no mencionó específicamente la comunión, él dijo que la Iglesia debería "abrir las puertas un poquito más" y permitirle a católicos divorciados y casados de nuevo a participar en la vida de la Iglesia. Recuerde que un sínodo no es un grupo legislativo, ni puede actuar o pronunciar una enseñanza definitiva. Su único propósito es hacerle recomendaciones al Papa Francisco. Mientras en Filadelfia el Papa Francisco habló con elocuencia sobre la vida familiar, al mismo tiempo que reconoció las dificultades y los retos que son parte de una familia en tiempos modernos. Yo sugiero que todos tomemos un momento para orar por el éxito de este próximo sínodo y tal vez tomemos unos momentos para meditar sobre las palabras del Papa Francisco:

"Dios quiere que todos sus hijos participen de la fiesta del Evangelio. No impidan todo lo bueno, dice Jesús, por el contrario, ayúdenlo a crecer. Poner en duda la obra del Espíritu, dar la impresión que la misma no tiene nada que ver con aquellos que «no son parte de nuestro grupo», que no son «como nosotros», es una tentación peligrosa. No bloquea solamente la conversión a la fe, sino constituye una perversion de la fe."

Oren también porque el mensaje y las palabras del Papa Francisco tengan un profundo y duradero efecto en todos nosotros.

Paz, Padre Kearney

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
