New Parishioners and Visitors Welcome

Pastor's Letter
Notas del Pastor

Dear Parishioners and friends of Ascension,

Last weekend, Andrea spoke at each of the masses about the importance of parish ministry. Esperanza, Kelley, and Shauna spoke at each of the masses about our homeless shelter. One way we can model Christ's love is by feeding and sheltering the poor. At Ascension we are fortunate to be able to partner with Holy Trinity parish, our neighbors at 82nd St, to provide a hot meal and safe haven for up to 20 men every Saturday night. This shelter has been operating for 20 years and last fall the shelter operations moved to Ascension.

There are a variety of ways to become involved in this ministry. Volunteers are needed to set up beds each Saturday night, to cook and serve a nutritious meal, to visit with our guests, and to serve as an overnight host. Volunteers also provide salads, dessert, and breakfast items. Between 6:30p.m. and 7:00p.m. the men arrive from our partner social service organizations, Camba and Urban Pathways Olivieri Center. The volunteers and guests eat a meal together. After dinner the volunteers clean up while the men socialize, relax, or more often, go right to sleep.

The men who use our shelter are receiving services from Camba or Olivieri and are screened each week before coming to Ascension. Guests who are sent to Faith Based Respite Shelters like ours, are those members of the homeless community who function independently without extra medical or mental health supervision. The screening process provides an assurance that our shelter is not challenged by drugs, alcohol, or violence. Our shelter is a safe place for volunteers and guests alike. Many of the men who come to our shelter are employed and are in the process of securing a safe place to live.

We do have a team of 2-3 volunteers stay the night to serve as hosts or "sleepers". These overnight hosts, both men and women, keep things running smoothly. In the morning the hosts set out a light breakfast. The men are picked up and leave the shelter by 7:00a.m. to start another day.

Serving as a host or "sleeper" at the shelter is a wonderful opportunity to mirror God's love to some of the most vulnerable members of our community. Spending time up close with guests struggling with homelessness allows us to live out the gospel message in a profound way. Serving as a sleeper is a great opportunity for couples, singles, friends, parents and teens to spend time together serving others. It is also a great opportunity for anyone who needs a break from the busyness of life. As an overnight host you may choose to sleep, but you can also use this time to read, to study, to pray, or simply to reflect on how God is present in this ministry.

While I would encourage everyone to prayerfully reflect to discern if you are called to volunteer at the shelter, I know this may not be how you are called to serve. You can still support this ministry. Donations of both money and warm clothing are needed. In the upcoming winter months we will be collecting socks, hats and gloves for our guests. Most importantly I ask you to pray for the success of the shelter, and the safety and wellbeing of the homeless men who stay with us each week.

If you would like more information about the shelter ministry email: shelter107@gmail.com. For volunteer sign ups go to: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/60b0b4baaa72faa8-shelter3>.

Thank you!

Father Kearney

Queridos feligreses y amigos de la Ascensión,

El fin de semana pasado, Andrea habló en cada una de las misas sobre la importancia del ministerio parroquial. Esperanza, Kelley y Shauna hablaron en cada una de las misas acerca de nuestro albergue para desamparados. Una manera en que podemos semejar el amor de Cristo es dándole de comer y dándole albergue a los pobres. Aquí en la Ascensión, tenemos la fortuna de unirnos con la parroquia Santísima Trinidad, nuestros vecinos de la calle 82, para proveer una comida caliente y un lugar seguro para hasta 20 hombres cada sábado por la noche. Este albergue ha estado funcionando desde hace 20 años y el otoño pasado, el funcionamiento del albergue pasó a la Ascensión.

Hay una variedad de maneras de involucrarse en este ministerio. Se necesitan voluntarios para instalar las camas cada sábado por la noche, para cocinar y servir una comida nutritiva, para visitar a nuestros huéspedes y para servir como un anfitrión durante la noche. Los voluntarios también sirven ensaladas, postres y comidas para desayuno. Entre las 6:30 y 7:00 de la noche, los hombres llegan desde las organizaciones de servicios sociales, Camba y Urban Pathways Centro Olivieri. Los voluntarios y huéspedes comen la cena juntos. Después de la cena, los voluntarios limpian mientras los hombres socializan, se relajan, o a menudo, se acuestan a dormir.

Continuado

Los hombres que usan nuestro albergue están recibiendo servicios de Camba u Olivieri y son investigados cada semana antes de venir a la Ascensión. Los huéspedes que son enviados a albergues de descanso de organizaciones religiosas como el nuestro, son aquellos miembros de la comunidad de desamparados que funcionan independientemente sin supervisión médica o de salud mental adicional. El proceso de investigación provee una seguridad de que nuestro albergue no esté amenazado con las drogas, alcohol o violencia. Nuestro albergue es un lugar seguro para los voluntarios al igual que los huéspedes. Muchos de los hombres que vienen a nuestro albergue están empleados y están en el proceso de conseguir un lugar seguro para vivir.

Tenemos un equipo de 2 a 3 voluntarios por la noche para quedarse a servir como anfitriones o como “durmientes”. Estos anfitriones nocturnos, tanto mujeres como hombres, se ocupan de que todo vaya bien. En la mañana, los anfitriones sirven un desayuno ligero. Los hombres son recogidos a las 7 para comenzar un nuevo día.

Sirviendo como anfitrión o “durmiendo” en el albergue es una oportunidad maravillosa para imitar el amor de Dios a muchos de los miembros más vulnerables de nuestra comunidad. Pasando tiempo cerca de los huéspedes luchando con el desamparo nos permite vivir profundamente el mensaje del evangelio. Sirviendo como “durmientes” es una gran oportunidad para parejas, solteros y amigos, padres de familia y adolescentes para pasar tiempo juntos y sirviendo a otros. También es una gran oportunidad para cualquiera que necesite un descanso de las ocupaciones de la vida. Como un anfitrión nocturno puede escoger dormir, pero también puede usar este tiempo para leer, estudiar, orar o sencillamente reflexionar sobre cómo Dios está presente en este ministerio.

Mientras alentaría a todos que en oración reflexionen para discernir si están llamados a ser voluntarios en el albergue, yo sé que quizás ésta no es la manera en que está llamado a servir. Sin embargo, puede apoyar este ministerio. Se necesitan donaciones de dinero y ropa abrigada. En los próximos meses de invierno, estaremos recogiendo calcetines, gorros y guantes para nuestros huéspedes. De manera importante, les pido que oren por el éxito del albergue y la seguridad y bienestar de los hombres desamparados que estarán con nosotros cada semana.

Si desea más información sobre el ministerio de albergue, envíe un correo electrónico a: shelter107@gmail.com. Para registrarse como voluntario, vaya a: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/60b0b4baaa72faa8-shelter3>.

¡Gracias!

R. Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

Prayer for Peace (tune: Finlandia)

1. This is my prayer, O God of all the nations,
A prayer of peace for lands afar and mine.
This is my home, the country where my heart is;
Here are my hopes, my dreams, my holy shrine;
But other hearts in other lands are beating
With hopes and dreams as true and high as mine.

2. My country's skies are bluer than the ocean,
And sunlight beams on cloverleaf and pine;
But other lands have sunlight, too, and clover,
And skies are everywhere as blue as mine.
O hear my prayer, thou God of all the nations,
A prayer of peace for their land and for mine.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
